

Pawnee Nation employees enjoy the festivities of Christmas

The Employees Christmas party held Dec. 16 allowed for festive games, great food and opportunities to establish new friendships. The event was sponsored by the Employee's Club.

Phillip and Pam Ellis enjoy the seasonal amenities at the gathering.

Albert Stephenson shows off his gift certificate while his wife, Maric (left) and Pam Ellis (right) watch, possibly plotting on how to "help" Albert enjoy his prize.

(L to R) President Marshall Gover, Louise Stevens and Cynthia Butler demonstrate the joy of the season.

Kevin Aitson smiles for the camera while Ashley Mowatt shows off her snowman trinket.

New officers for the 2012 year are (l to r) Ashley Mowatt, secretary; Cynthia Butler, treasurer; Laura Mae Melton, vice-president; Brian Seigle, President.

Chrystal Windholz prepares the meat for serving. Windholz also served as secretary for the Employees Club during 2011.

Jaci Gover, (l to r) Marshall Gover, Brett Eppler and Laureen Eppler enjoy a time of fellowship.

Haeli (l) and mom Louise Stevens share a moment during the gift exchange.

Tammy Butler and Tamera Hawkins share a moment of solidarity while other employees mingle in the background.

(Top right) Jaci and Marshall Gover, complete with a reindeer and Santa cap, share in the excitement of the festivities. (Bottom right) Santa came early for some employees. (Top L to R) Phillip Ellis, Dawna Hare, Charley Hare, Janet Mulder and Priscilla Begay. (Bottom L to R) Marcie Stephenson, Pam Ellis, Haeli Stevens and Herb Rice.

(Above) Raynetta Gawhega examines a gift won in the seasonal game of Dirty Santa.

(Below) One of the many decorations that adorned the tables with care, awaiting the arrival of employees that soon would be there.

