

Fall Festivities not just for the young

The Fall Festival party held Oct. 31 provided an opportunity for the young and the more mature to dress up, visit with friends and enjoy great food. The celebration was held at the Multi-Purpose Building creatively decorated to match the occasion.

The event was sponsored by the Title VI program and desserts were provided by elders of the Title VI program. The cash prizes for the costume contest were sponsored by Richard and Oney Roubedeaux and Ellis and Monie Horsechief.

Release Date: 11/3/2011

Media Contact: Toni Hill

Communications Manager

Pawnee Nation of Oklahoma

Phone: 918.762.3621 ext. 25

Cell: 918.399.1344

Festive decorations add to the lively atmosphere at the Title VI Fall Festival.

The winners of the costume contest were (l to r) first place Minnie V. Fields as “Tinker bell”, second place was Andy Adson as “Don King” and third place was Marilyn Feathers as “Cleopatra.”

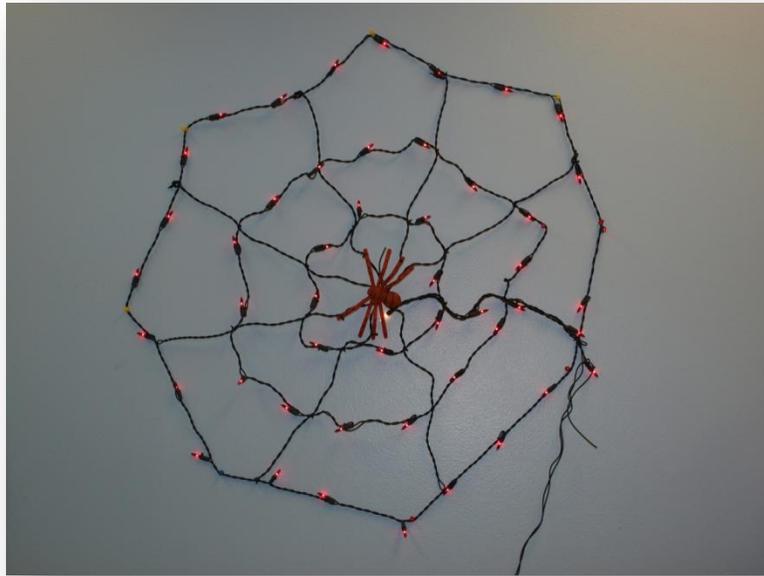

Lisa Pahsetopah, as an “Old Man” (l to r), Nancye N. Spraker-Johnson as “Catwoman”, Andy Adson as “Don King”, Marilyn Feathers as “Cleopatra”, Vada Horsechief as a leopard, Minnie Fields as “Tinker bell”, Jean Rice as “The Beast”, Izel Chance Stewart as the little elephant (held by an anonymous benefactor) and Monie Horsechief.

Iris Pahsetopah gets into character as “Casino Man” as Lisa Pahsetopah chuckles with the crowd.

“Beauty” (r) played by Jaci Gover and “The Beast” portrayed by Jean Rice.

A creatively designed spider web complete with an orange arachnid. And below, decorations add to the humor and fun of the party.

