

Veteran's Day Dance honors those dedicated to defending America's freedoms

The Pawnee Nation Veteran's Day Dance was held Nov. 11. Festivities begin with a lunch prepared and served by the elders. Several War Dances and other ceremonial dances followed with special recognition given to the members of the U.S. Army Bravo/Pawnee Company.

The War Dance allowed Tribe members to demonstrate respect and honor.

War Dance movements depict a variety of tradition. Above and below Tribe Members honor veterans.

Members demonstrated their talents with voice and drums.

The remaining pictures on the page show the variety of dress and demeanors of respect.

Spc. Pearle Hare poses with her mother, Karen Haymond and father, Walter Hare, Yankton Seneca.

Members of the Bravo/Pawnee Company pose with PBC Vice-President Charles Lone Chief, Jr.

All branches of the U.S. Military were represented. The remaining pictures on this page highlight diversity and honor.

Members of the Bravo/Pawnee Company (l to r) Spc. Pearle Hare, Cpt. Chris Rains, 1SG Daniel Gilliss, SFC David Murphy, Sgt. William Jobe and Cpl. Scott Small pose with Jessica Leading Fox.

