Joanne Williamson, MBS, LPC

Joanne has been in the domestic and sexual assault field for over 30 years. She established and directed a domestic violence shelter for 6 years. She obtained her counseling licensure and has worked in counseling for 25 years. She is the recipient of the "Young Career Women" award and has worked passionately to end violence against all individuals.

Empowerment

We value community, individuality and education. Ti Hirasa is a program that connects, educates, and supports survivors of domestic and dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault, of all backgrounds, and empowers individuals to succeed to their greatest potential.
