

Pawnee Nation CARES – Food & Supply Assistance (Non-Jurisdiction)

General Information

The Pawnee Nation of Oklahoma has allocated money from the CARES funds to assist with the social needs of the Nation's Citizen's, whom live outside of the Pawnee Nation's jurisdiction, due to loss of income, loss of job and other hardships created by the COVID-19 Pandemic. This funding will be allocated through the Food & Supply Assistance (Non-Jurisdiction) (FSA-NJ).

FSA-NJ will start accepting applications immediately with disbursements starting now until December 18, 2020. FSA-NJ will provide a one-time flat benefit, to be used to help purchase groceries and personal protective equipment (PPE), to meet household needs in this time of pandemic.

Assistance

Assistance will be in the form of a Wal-Mart gift card to help purchase groceries and personal protective equipment (PPE).

The Pawnee Nation is not responsible for the loss or the theft of gift cards and will not reissue in either instance.

Participation

Applications are open to all Pawnee Nation Tribal members who live outside of the Pawnee Nation jurisdictional area.

There is a limited amount of funding and maximum threshold for each request, funding will be limited to one per household.
