Vice President called the meeting back to order at 10:46 am.

8. Discussion and/or Action on the Tax Commission Tags

Discussion was on the increase in the Tribal tag fees. Tribal Members are dropping the Tribal tags to get State tags. Question was about the Tax Act and where in the act does it allow the Commission to make changes in the rates before coming to Council for approval.

Lyle Fields was present to answer questions.

Decision is to send a letter to the Tax Commission to have them change their rates back to the old rates with a rebate to those tribal members who have paid the increased rates.

Motion made by M. Angela Thompson, due to lack of notice, according to the ordinance and Act of the Tax Commission for the recent increase in tag rates are invalid because the Tax Commission did not notify tribal members according to the Act, the previous rates will go into effect immediately as well as reimbursements that will be determined by the Tax Director and reimbursement checks will be made to those tribal members who have paid at the increased rates, seconded by Adrian Spottedhorsechief.

VI. Open Forum

Phammie Littlesun asked Deb Echohawk about the amount of money the elders have raised for the NICOA Trip.

Anne Collins said they have raised around $2,500.

Deb Echo Hawk said that the Aucuts and Auptuts have raised $4,000 to go towards spending money and not towards the trip. The other elders group will use the $2,500 towards the payments of the trip.

More discussion on the Elder’s Trip.

Sammy Adson requested to put the Housing Authority on Executive Session of the next Council Meeting.

M. Angela Thompson would like to discuss the communication from the President’s Office. She would like more communication on decisions that are made.

Liana Chapman Teter asked for a meeting with the Housing Authority Board.

Adrian Spottedhorsechief would like to add to the agenda the Bison Project. He invited the Council to a meeting during the Sovereignty Symposium.
M. Angela Thompson invited the Council to the Budget Hearings to approve the budgets for 2017.
