XII. Open Forum

Carol Nuttle: was appreciative of Mr. Reed being at the meeting and explaining the resolution of support for the Museum and Cultural Center; urged the Council to get behind the programs; disappointed with the Council and no one knowing who to contact for individuals who want to give land to the Nation in Nebraska; wants a procedure in place for individuals on who to contact; thanked the Attorney General and Mr. Perry on thinking outside the box on the Worker’s Comp Policy; encouraged each of the Council to attend the bingo for Tribal elder Neva Moore and support the elders; encouraged the people to vote during this election season on those individuals who are going to work; and mentioned she was disappointed with the lack of production from the Land Management Committee and the loss of opportunities because there is no process or procedures;

Jamie Nelson: encouraged the PBC to attend the program events; would like to see the leadership at stepping out; what she recalled from the Social Media Policy;

Debra Echo-Hawk: Thanked Ms. Carol Nuttle for her words and encouragement; update on what she working on with the Corn Project and Elders.

Ramona Horsechief: had some concerns on the Worker’s Comp policy and her experience with the process through the state while employed at the Pawnee Nation; and does not want to see it taken lightly; commended Jamie Nelson for speaking up; grant opportunities for agriculture, would like to see the tribe use the resources from USDA and NRCS; would like to see Planning Division participate in the meetings;

Brian Kirk: mentioned that the Planning Division has met with both entities on some projects; discussion has been initiated and they are working with them.

Jamie Nelson: asked the Council what the next step is with the information that was collected at the meeting on the 9th.

Brian Kirk: there will be more meetings moving forward and the information from all the meetings will be combined; more information will go out on the next step

Jamie Nelson: asked the Council if they will be watching the video as well

Jim Gray: there was an introductory meeting with Embridge Oil and after that discussion was given the opportunity to ask for some funds for the Language Program; the Nation was awarded $5,000.00 to start up the program;
